CANADIAN BRITISH COLUMBIA (BC) PROVISIONAL NOMINEE PROGRAM

B.C. is the western-most province in Canada, bordering the Pacific Ocean. Internationally known for its stunning natural beauty (there are six national parks), British Columbia is home to more than 4.6 million people. While most of these residents live in the Lower Mainland area, British Columbia's land area is the size of France, Germany and the Netherlands combined.

Canada offers tremendous opportunities to foreigners who want to do business in British Columbia with British Columbia Entrepreneur Program. Every year, thousands of ambitious businesspeople grace our shores and there is certainly no reason why you cannot be among them.

BRITISH COLUMBIA ENTREPRENEUR IMMIGRATION

The British Columbia Entrepreneur Program is one of the top Canadian business immigration programs available today. Candidates that open a qualifying new business in the province, or significantly expand an existing one, can qualify for expedited Canadian permanent residency through the British Columbia Provincial Nominee Program (BCPNP).

Personal Requirements

To qualify, you must:

- Have a personal net worth of at least CAD $300,000
- Demonstrate business and/or management experience
- Have, or be eligible for, legal immigration status in Canada

You must also have been lawfully admitted in the country where you currently reside.

BUSINESS, JOB AND INVESTMENT REQUIREMENTS

To qualify, you must:

- Establish an eligible new business or purchase and improve an existing business
- Make an eligible personal investment of at least CAD$ 100,000 in the business
- Create at least one new full-time job for a Canadian citizen or permanent resident in the business
